PROPERS OF THE MASS

Lesson Rom 12:6-16

Brethren: We have gifts differing according to the grace that has been given us, such as prophecy to be used according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, in ministering; or he who teaches, in teaching; he who exhorts, in exhorting; he who gives, in simplicity; he who presides, with carefulness; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without pretense. Hate what is evil, hold to what is good. Love one another with honor. Be not slothful in zeal; be fervent in spirit, serving the Lord, rejoicing in hope. Be patient in tribulation, persevering in prayer. Share the needs of the saints, practicing hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. Be of one mind towards one another. Do not set your mind on high things but condescend to the lowly.

Gospel John 2:1-11

At that time, a marriage took place at Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Now Jesus too was invited to the marriage, and also His disciples. And the wine having run short, the mother of Jesus said to Him, They have no wine. And Jesus said to her, What would you have me do, woman? My hour has not yet come. His mother said to the attendants, Do whatever He tells you. Now six stone water-jars were placed there, after the Jewish manner of purification, each holding two or three measures. Jesus said to them, Fill the jars with water. And they filled them to the brim. And Jesus said to them, Draw out now, and take to the chief steward. And they took it to him. Now when the chief steward had tasted the water after it had become wine, not knowing whence it was - though the attendants who had drawn the water knew, - the chief steward called the bridegroom, and said to him, Every man at first sets forth the good wine, and when they have drunk freely, then that which is poorer. But you have kept the good wine until now. This first of His signs Jesus worked at Cana of Galilee; and He manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sung Requiem Mass for Fr. Frank Parrinello: Wednesday, Jan. 18 at 7pm

—Fr. Frank Parrinello, the first chaplain of the Mater Dei Latin Mass Community, died on Jan. 7, 2023, in Sioux City, Iowa. He was 55. The newspaper of the Archdiocese of Omaha, of which he was a priest, reported heart attack as the cause of death. St. Lawrence will offer a Sung Requiem Mass for him, with blessing at the catafalque, Wednesday night.

As the first chaplain of the Mater Dei Community, beginning Dec.

2, 2007, shortly after the issuance of Pope Benedict's Moto proprio Summorum Pontificum, which expanded access to the Traditional Latin Mass, Fr. Parrinello made a lasting impact, initiating many devotions and activities still practiced at St. Lawrence. Fr. Parrinello "brought a deep sense of community" to the newly established Mater Dei, said Mary Ann Vigilante, who began working for Mater Dei under his leadership.

"Scrolling through my old emails, he initiated the Holy Name Society, the Knights of the Altar, Junior Sodality, Women's Sodality, Pro-Life Committee, Sunday socials, picnics, gatherings," Mary Ann said.

Then a member of the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter (FSSP), Fr. Parrinello was also the first chaplain of the Lancaster Latin Mass Community, beginning May 2008.

The obituary published by the Archdiocese of Omaha noted that his funeral had been scheduled for Jan. 14 at St. Michael Church in South Sioux City. Burial was to be at Calvary Cemetery in Sioux City, Iowa.

More from the same obituary:

"[Fr. Parrinello] grew up in Sioux City and earned a bachelor's degree in social work and psychology from Briar Cliff University in Sioux City in 1989. As a young man, though, he felt a deeper calling into his faith and toward the priesthood, Father Cook said. The two became friends as archdiocese seminarians studying at Mount St. Mary Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland.

"Father Parrinello was ordained in 2000 and was associate pastor of Sacred Heart Parish in Norfolk from 2000 to 2003 and pastor of St. Leonard Parish in Madison from 2003 to 2005. Then he felt called to enter the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, Father Cook said. With permission from the archdiocese, Father Parrinello served with the Fraternity in Rapid City, South Dakota; Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; and Tulsa and Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

"In 2015 he completed a master's degree in social work from Our Lady of the Lake University in San Antonio. He had a mental health practice with Catholic Charities of Eastern Oklahoma.

"A few years ago, Father Parrinello returned to the Archdiocese of Omaha to be closer to his parents and work for the Lord through mental health care, said his sister, Gina Rosenbaum of North Sioux City, South Dakota.

"He established Our Lady of Good Counsel Apostolate for Psychotherapy and Counseling, with an office in downtown Omaha. He served as a volunteer chaplain for the Douglas County Sheriff's Office and consultant to the archdiocese's Metropolitan Tribunal, a Church court....

"Father Parrinello was preceded in death by his mother, who died in October. Survivors include his father; his sister and her husband, Paul Rosenbaum; four nieces and two great-nieces."

Fr. Cortes will be away on vacation Monday, Jan. 16 to Friday, Jan 27.

Fr. John Killackey, FSSP will provide coverage next Sunday, Jan. 22 during Fr. Cortes' absence.

Kearney Conquers Healy—Congratulations to Anthony Kearney's team, which defeated Jonathan Healy and company yesterday in the first annual St. Lawrence basketball tournament at the East Shore YMCA, near the church, by a score of 26 to 20. Congratulations as well to all six teams for their great sportsmanship, and thanks to our benefactor for sponsoring the use of the YMCA on a quarterly basis.

New 3-Week Adult Education course on Friday nights at 7:30pm starting Feb. 3, and ending Feb. 17; Fr. Cortes will offer a short course, meeting in the Aula Magna, on Pius XII's encyclical, Mystici Corporis Christi, which covers such topics as the role of the laity in the Church, the pope's opposition to Nazism, killing of disabled people, exclusion on the basis of race or nationality, forced conversions, and Mariology.

Openings in the St. Lawrence Choir—The choir has openings for additional dedicated volunteers (Soprano and Tenor) and one qualified Alto Section Leader. Members are expected to be available for Thursday evening rehearsals, Sunday 11am Masses from September to June, and for 1st Class Feast Days. Volunteers with previous choral experience are preferred, but those with strong desire may be considered at the discretion of the Music Director. Applicants for the Alto Section Leader Position must audition and demonstrate strong vocal musicianship. Please email all inquiries to Paul Thomas May at: music@stlawrence.cc.

March for Life buses—Friday, Jan. 20, 2023—Even with the blessing of Roe vs. Wade being overturned, the necessary work to build a culture of life in the United States is not finished. The goal of the National March for Life is not only to change laws at the state and federal level, but to change the American culture to ultimately make abortion unthinkable. The National March for Life will continue until a culture of life is restored to the United States. The Diocese of Harrisburg has seats available on local buses that will be taking participants to the March for Life. For the latest information and to register, please visit: <https://www.hbgdiocese.org/march-for-life-bus-information/>

Anniversary of Roe vs. Wade—Day of Prayer—Monday, Jan. 23—Each year on Jan. 22, all dioceses within the United States are called to observe a "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children." Since Jan. 22, 2023, falls on a Sunday, the date will shift to Monday, Jan. 23, 2023. Resources are available from the USCCB to help parishes, schools, families, ministries, and individual Catholics participate in this important day of prayer and penance.

ProceSSIONAL Hymn Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul praise Him for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near; Praise Him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously
reigneth,
Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth!
Hast thou not seen how thy desires e'er been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do, If with His love
he befriend thee.

RecessionAL Hymn Come Down, O Love Divine

Come down, O love divine, seek Thou this soul of mine,
And visit it with Thine own ardor glowing.
O Comforter draw near, within my heart appear,
And kindle it, Thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn, til earthly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
And let Thy glorious light shine ever on my sight,
And clothe me round, the while my path illuming

Let holy charity mine outward vesture be,
And lowliness become mine inner clothing;
True lowliness of heart, which takes the humbler part,
And o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long,
Shall far outpass the pow'r of human telling;
For none can guess its grace, till he become the place
Wherein the Holy Spirit makes His dwelling.
