PROPERS OF THE MASS (FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST)

Lesson 1 Pet 3:8-15

Beloved: Be all like-minded in prayer, compassionate, lovers of the brethren, merciful, reserved, humble; not rendering evil for evil, or abuse for abuse, but contrariwise, blessing; for unto this were you called that you might inherit a blessing. For, 'He who would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no deceit. Let him turn away from evil and do good, let him seek after peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are upon the just, and His ears unto their prayers; but the face of the lord is against those who do evil.' And who is there to harm you, if you are zealous for what is good? But even if you suffer anything for justice' sake, blessed are you. So have no fear of their fear and do not be troubled. But hallow the Lord Christ in your hearts.

Gospel Matt 5:20-24

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Unless your justice exceeds that of the Scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'You shall not kill'; and that whoever shall kill shall be liable to judgment. But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be liable to the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool!', shall be liable to the fire of Gehenna. Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift before the altar and go first to be reconciled to your brother; and then come and offer your gift.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Fifth Sunday After Pentecost—“This Sunday, which, with the Greeks, is called the fifth of St. Matthew, was known by the Latins as the Sunday of the fishing; such was its name up to the time when the Church transferred to the previous Sunday the Gospel which suggested that title. The week which it commences is, in some ancient lectionaries, called the ‘first after the feast of the apostles’ or of St. Peter; in others it is the second or third after the same feast; these, and similar varieties of names, which it is no rare thing to find in the liturgical books of the Middle Ages, are due to the fact that Easter was kept earlier or later in the years when those books were written ....

“The proximity of the great solemnity of the apostles, .... to the Saturday when this antiphon is sung, has suggested to the Church to apply its last words to Saints Peter and Paul, during the octave of their feast : ‘Glorious princes of the earth! as they loved each other in their life, so even in their death they were not divided!’ Like the Hebrew people at this period of their history, our Christian armies have often had to hail the accession of a king on the field reddened with the blood of his predecessor.”

HELP NEEDED: Supplies Coordinator—A volunteer is needed for approximately 2 hours per month. This individual will check inventory of products needed for parish activities to run smoothly (Sunday socials, Holy Name Society, Christian Mothers, and others). Inventory will be taken after the third Sunday of each month and an order form will be provided to the office. Once the order has been filled, the coordinator will pick up order at The Restaurant Store in Camp Hill and properly restock items. If you are interested please contact the office. Individual should be able to lift 50 lbs. (or have a teenager on-hand who could help).

Today: Coffee and Doughnut Socials—Please join us in the basement social hall for refreshments and socializing with your fellow parishioners after each of the morning Masses. Thanks to the Holy Name Society for their generosity in organizing this.

Monday, July 10 to Friday, July 14—Chant Camp 2023

The first four days will be spent learning and preparing the sacred music for an 11am Sung Mass on the feast of St. Bonaventure, Friday, July 14; Lunch, sports, and games are included each day at Wormleysburg Park. Chant Camp 2023 will end with an 11am Mass on Friday July 14, dedicated to St. Bonaventure.

Welcome Deacon and Seminarian—We are very happy to have two men from our seminary assigned to help us this summer at St. Lawrence. Mr. Andrew Daniels, having completed his fourth year at Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary (OLGS), as of press time was scheduled to arrive yesterday (Saturday); and Deacon Jacob Kasak, having completed his sixth year at OLGS and preparing for his priestly ordination next May, is scheduled to arrive tomorrow (Monday). Andrew is scheduled to be here all of July, and Deacon Kasak is schedule to be here two weeks in July (including Chant Camp) and two weeks in August. Please welcome them when you see them!

Young Adult Group—The Young Adult Group, for those 18-35, meets about three times a month for different events, including social events, charitable works, and spiritual conferences. Please email youngadults@stlawrence.cc for more information.

2023 Mass Intentions—To accommodate everyone’s requests, we ask that going forward, each family submit no more than four Mass intentions per month. This will enable everyone an opportunity to have their Masses said throughout the year. Thank you!

St. Jude Devotion Mass Intention—The Mass intention on the third Wednesday of each month will be for the prayer requests received on the Parish prayer email list. Please note that when a third Wednesday falls within the Novenas for Mother’s Day and Father’s Day, the Mass intention for the 6:15am morning Mass will be designated for the respective novena. The 6:30pm evening Mass intention will be for the list of prayer requests.

Notes on Today's Music

Processional hymn: Blessed Are the Sons of God, 870
Recessional hymn: Holy God, We Praise Thy Name, 881
Kyriale: Mass IV, 710; Credo I, 768

Motet after Offertory: Anima Christi, Msgr. Marco Frisina (b. 1954)

Communion Antiphon: Tu Es Petrus, Heinrich Isaac (c.1450–1517)

The choral works this Sunday reflect both the external solemnity of Ss. Peter & Paul and also the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ—for which the month of July is dedicated. The motet after the offertory chant is perhaps the most famous setting of the prayer Anima Christi by Msgr. Marco Frisina. Monsignor's setting can be accompanied with either strings or organ and alternates full choir with a solo voice.

The communion antiphon is a setting by Heinrich Isaac which takes its inspiration from the original Gregorian melody. It begins with the incipit from the chant and each voice enters individually; the bass voice has keeps the melody throughout. Isaac illustrates building—"...I will build my church."—by having each voice stack on top of one another and form the only static chord in the middle of this short motet.

Heinrich Isaac (c.1450–1517) was a Renaissance composer from the South Netherlandish region. His output was rivaled only by Orlandus Lassus in number and variety of composition. Most notable of his collections is Choralis Constantinus which contains nearly 400 Gregorian chant based motets of propers for the Mass.

Processional Hymn

Blessed Are the Sons of God

Blessed are the sons of God,
They are bought with Christ's own Blood,
They are harmless, meek, and mild.
Holy, humble, undefiled.
*Refrain: With them numbered may we be,
Now and thro' eternity!*

They are lights upon the earth,
Children of a heav'nly birth;
Born of God, they hate all sin,
God's pure seed remains within.
Refrain.

Banns of Marriage

Ian Collier Gabig and Rachel Catherine Lyter

Be it known to all here present that Ian Collier Gabig, son of William and Patricia Gabig of Camp Hill, Penn., and of the quasi-parish of St. Lawrence of Rome, Deacon and Martyr in Harrisburg, Penn.; and Rachel Catherine Lyter of the quasi-parish of St. Lawrence of Rome, Deacon and Martyr in Harrisburg, Penn., daughter of James and Laura Lyter of the parish of St. Joseph in York, Penn.; intend to be united in holy matrimony. Wherefore, we hereby admonish each and all that, if any of you has knowledge of an impediment existing which would prevent their marrying, whether it be an impediment of blood relationship, relationship through marriage, spiritual relationship, or of any other kind, you are bound to make it known to the pastor or bishop as soon as possible. This is the first publication of the banns.

Recessional Hymn

Holy God, we praise Thy Name

Holy God, we praise Thy Name;
Lord of all, we bow before Thee!
All on earth Thy scepter claim,
All in Heav'n above adore Thee;
Infinite Thy vast domain,
Everlasting is Thy reign.

Hark! The loud celestial hymn
Angel choirs above are raising,
Cherubim and seraphim,
In unceasing chorus praising;
Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord:
Holy, holy, holy, Lord.
